

Karen Fitzgerald In Residence at Haslla Art World

This event is an opportunity to learn about an international residency program in South Korea.

- What and where is Haslla Art World
- How I found the residency opportunity
- Transcultural Exchange Conference / website
- Experiences as an international artist-in-residence; meeting other artists, presenting work at a symposium
- Experiences traveling in Japan
- Gilding demonstration: a peak at a day-long workshop offered on October 14, 2014 at the artist's studio

Speaker Biography

Karen Fitzgerald's work has been widely exhibited in the United States and Korea. The Milwaukee Art Museum, the Queens Museum of Art, Islip Art Museum and the Sonoma Museum of Visual Art have featured her work. A variety of public and private collections include her work: the New York Public Library, the Reinhart Collection (Germany) and many others. The Greenwall Foundation, Queens Community Arts Fund and Women's Studio Center have all supported her with individual artist's grants. During July, 2014 she was artist-in-residence at Haslla Art World in South Korea. She is a master teaching artist, providing arts-in-education consulting services for the education community at large. She lives with her husband and three sons in Woodside. Her studio is located in Northern LIC.